The Women's College

Gainesville, Georgia

Bubbles 1992

Volume 92

Opening

Had To Be THERE

At first glance; college is a big step. To relieve some of the stress of school and college life, Freshmen Orientation became a time for returning students and faculty to welcome incoming students. Registration was followed step by step by anxious students and families to ensure a successful take-off of 1991.

Brandy Fleming, Celeste Hanson and Tracy Chauncy wait to begin at Step 1 of Freshmen Orientation.

WELCOME TO BRENAU! Julie Bridges, Jennifer Carlton, Lisa Overstreet, Amy Lafitte, Gabriel Chaput, Robyn Polcyn, Ashley Copses, Jennifer Wall, Anne Hawthorne, Robin Ricks, Jennifer Mauldin, Jane Wall, Jeanette Manry, Heather Statham, Rebecca Mladenoff and Jatie Marcoux comprise the Peer Advisors for this year.

Panhellenic President Shanna Skone and SGA President Ellen Hardy take a break from coordinating registration.

Admissions counselor Gail Polizzi assures the Collins (left) and the Hudsons (right) that Linda Collins and Marion Hudson have made the right choice in attending Brenau.

"When I first came to Brenau, I was very comfortable. I felt as if Brenau was embracing me." — Julie Arnold St. Petersburg, Fla.

Resident director Lisa Langford, assisted by resident assistants Robin Oglesby and Katherine Cadena, explains Van Hoose/Crudup Hall registration to international student Ute Meyers.

Play Ball!!!

Brenau showed support and total devotion when the Atlanta Braves contended for the World Series against the Minnesota Twins. Braves Day included a spirit contest judged by Linda Smith, Sylvia Perry, James Southerland, Pat Burd and Dick Childers. Braves lovers, like Roxanna Martin and Laura Harvin, came dressed in Braves spirit.

Friendships Bind

UNITY THROUGH DIVERSITY

One way or another, SGA promoted campus wide unity. In October 1991, Campus Unity Week was filled with activities that included a tie-dye workshop, blood drive and chalk art contest. Most importantly, Brenau individuals learned diversity strengthens friendships.

Betsy Arnold and Kathleen Illges apply finishing touches to BFA's chalk art entry.

Tally Singers participates in the tie-dye workshop.

Play Time

Now For Something Completely Different

Brenau students made time outside of homework and the classrooms. The proof is in the pictures. Rec Board sponsored flag football and a bowl-a-thon. As part of physical education requirements, students can choose to learn to bowl, golf or take aerobics classes. It's all a matter of just having fun!

Krissy Tolbert and Ute Meyers hold on to each other while skating.

Gabrielle Chaput passes the ball to Jane Wall. Teammates Robyn Polcyn, Alyssa Ekey and Maria Esquerro make strategy plans.

The Pearls (Jeanette Manry, Jeannie Ackerman, Lella Crane, Beth Middlecamp, B.J. Yarbrough and Jate Davis) play offense to the Bowheads (Jane Wall and Lori Reeves).

"The Pearls should have won. He said the touchdown I made was no good. I caught the ball in the end zone."

— Kate Davis Duluth, GA

Playing the field are Maria Esquerra, Stephanie Standridge, Julie Arnold, Kate Davis, Beverly Jordan, Tammy White, Beth Hall, Jean Harris, Stephanie Weaver and Jennifer Ann Podolec.

Around The World

International Students Of Brenau

This year Brenau has a group of international students from more than 11 countries, including: Bolivia, El Salvador, Georgia (eastern Europe), Germany, Iceland, India, Japan, Korea, Norway, Saudi Arabia and Yugoslavia. The club members are Laura Maghzan, Ute Meyers, Ximena Andrade, Mariko Kimova, Maya Vahtangadze, Regina Hernandez, Miyono Hendrix, Christel Navarro, Woong Ki Eun, Priti Rana, Tatiana Andrade, Paula Lawrence, Anita Alden, Manal Khashan, and Karen Navarro.

Ute Meyer, of Germany, Elna Kristjansdotti, of Iceland, Tatiana Andrade, of Bolivia and Maya Vahtangadze, of Georgia, plan the next club meeting.

Manal Khashan, of Saudi Arabia, treasurer of the International club keeps up the good work all year.

Priti Rana, of India, enjoyed the Phoenix Society Dinner.

Tomoe Sato, of Japan, has been dancing at Brenau for two years.

Miyono Hendrix, of Japan, and Ximena and Tatiana Andrade, of Bolivia, stop for a break between classes.

Heard It Here

Have We Got News For you . . .

Although Brenau is a female college, Brenau women have a certain magnetism that seems to draw men from all over the United states, just to show that Brenau is still maintaining its hospitality.

Men seem to adore Alpha Gamma Delta's Lisa Smith, Angela Brown, Meredith Vaughn, Jennifer Milam and Sissy Elliott.

Robin Oglesby welcomes her guest to Brenau's fall band party.

These male guests know A-Chi-O is the only way to go, according to Heather Statham, Amy Michel, Marcia Crosby, Jan Wall, Marion Hudson and Dawn Leroy.

To the beat, Paula Lawrence and friend dance reggae style.

ADPi's (Tari O'Gorman, Dana Henson, Lisa Lambright), Tyler Lawrence, Whitney Moreland, Katie Marcoux, Laura Harvin and guys.

Sissy Elliott and Lori Reeves prepare to Trick-or-Treat and collect money for the Diabetes Foundation.

SAC members Lisa Overstreet, Mendal Prather and Revecca Mladenoff rang up donations at the annual Brenau phone-a-thon.

Ask Me If I Care

BRENAU DOES!

Brenau students believe in supporting Gainesville's community through various volunteer work. Brenau has aided the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, the Girl's Club and the Arthritis Foundation. Students also have spent time with the elderly at the Guest House and Elderhostel, and have played with homeless children at the Gainesville Coalition.

Junior Lucinda Bryant volunteers with an Elderhostel.

Nicole Miro suds it up for the Children's Wish Foundation.

Where Is Your Yellow Brick Road Going?

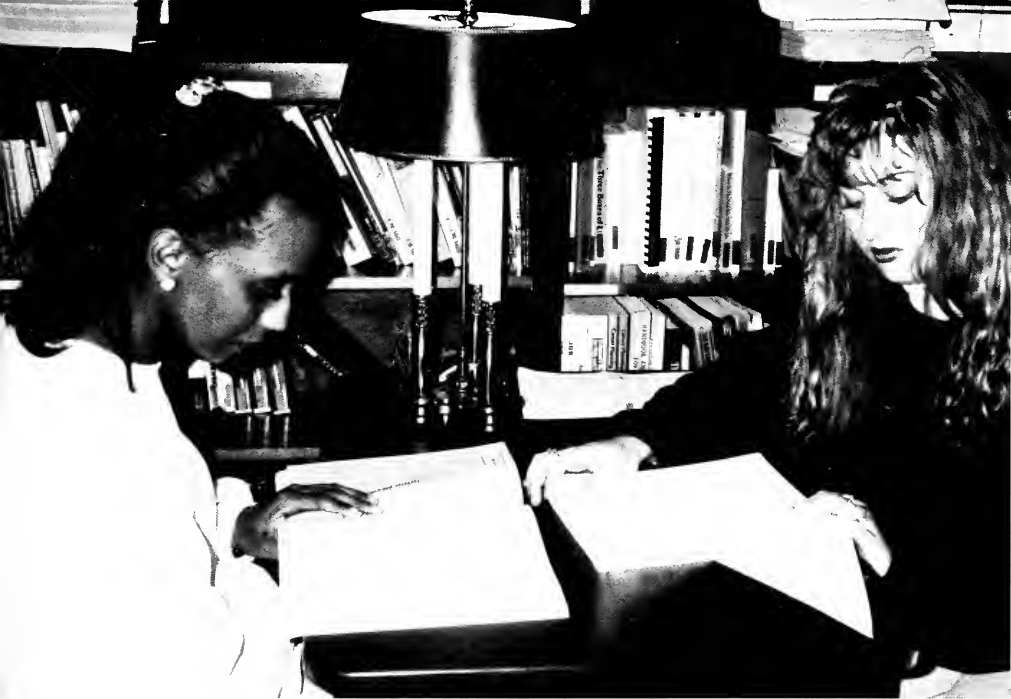

Dr. Shirley Gash urges students to take advantage of all the career opportunities available at Brenau. The Career Planning and Placement Office, with the help of Dr. Shirley Gash, assists women of Brenau. This assistance occurs in a variety of ways, all of which aid in the many phases of college and post-college careers.

Susan Dugger is determined to find a summer job.

Regina Hernandez discusses her major with Dr. Gash.

Dr. Gash advises Candice Dyer, Kim Howell and Paula Lawrence about career opportunities.

Seniors Melissa Currin and Candice Dyer already are planning what to do after graduation.

"One of the most important things we do in our college experience is plan how we as women can be self empowering. Brenau is where we begin healthy work habits and healthy career attitudes." — Dr. Shirley Gash, Career Planning and Placement

Student Life

Are You A Rat?

RATS, RATS, will you come out to play? The Sophomore class wants to welcome you to the Brenau family. But first, as rats, you must prove your loyalty to Brenau. Will you sing off key? Will you run backwards? Most importantly, can you recite the Brenau Ideal? Don't worry, we just wanted to show you that "girls just want to have fun."

Jamie Goldblum and Robin Oglesby set up rat patrol

Attempting to sing are Brandi Cornelius Paul Lawrence and Beth Middlecamp.

Marion Hudson, Kimberly Richey and Whitney Move-land sing to seniors Cheryl Gray, Kim Hudson, Ellen Hardy, Stephanie Greeson, Dana Laster and Jennifer Milam.

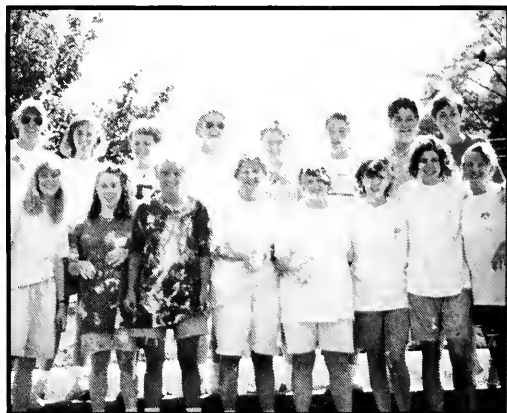

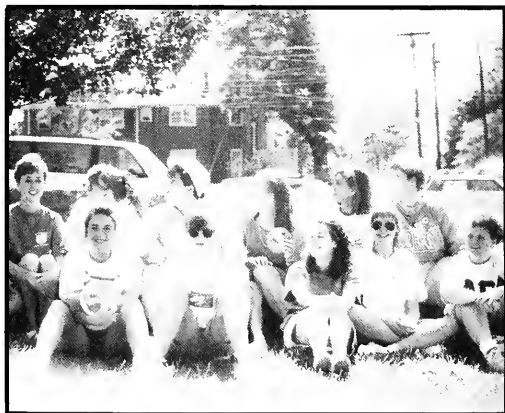

Kameshia Oglesby and Lucinda Bryant welcome Perpetually Participating Parents Mrs. Bryant and Emily Duggar.

Parents Weekend

"Mom and Dad, what a surprise?" Parents Weekend gave the parents an opportunity to visit Brenau as well as participate in fun activities held on the front campus. Candidates for Freshman class president held fundraisers to raise money for the class treasury. Other organizations took part in the activities by selling Brenau paraphana-lia. Parents also sampled food in Hopkins Dining Hall.

SPADE-A-HUNT

Where can you find a spade? Juniors frantically searched, clue after clue, around Brenau's campus for a hidden spade but only the senior class knows its location. Juniors went from the tennis courts, amphitheatre and to the newly acquired land. No such luck — yet. In the end, Juniors found the spade between the Academy and front campus. Will the next class be successful in locating that spade?

GOTCHA!

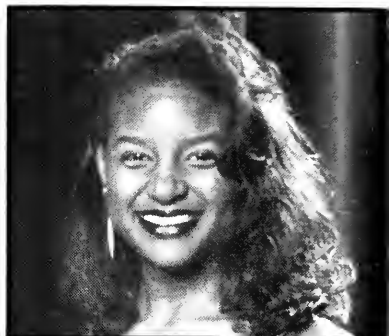

Watch out Sarah Lamb and Ashli Duggar, Kim McCoy wants to get even.

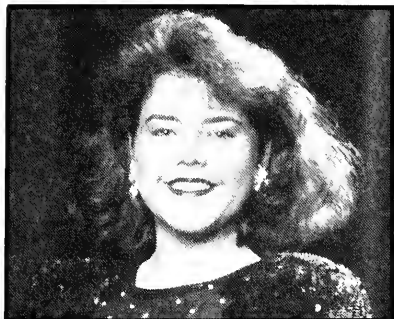

Seniors Kim McCoy and Stephanie Greeson are good sports while covered in cream.

Pica, copy, tool, photo, crop, what's one word to describe yearbook? BUBBLES 1991 blasted off trying to meet yearbook deadlines. We frantically run around trying to find that one picture or that one piece of cut line that just disappeared. We search around campus for photo opportunities. We struggle to make the pictures fit the layout or the layout fit the pictures. We hound students and faculty/administration for quotes. We attend seminars, sell ads, put in late hours and still have to cope with pressure of deadlines everyday. The BUBBLES staff take on the responsibility of recording the happenings on Brenau's campus. Every little piece of detail and just only 140 pages to depict a year's worth of chaos, laughter, tears and memories.

Tri-Delta pledges include: Beth Middlecamp, Heather Holt, Dell McLean, Adrian Rice, Ruth Jordan, Leslie Wheeler and Hunter Smith.

Alpha Gamma Delta members include: Jennifer Milam, Angela Brown, Lisa Smith, Paula Baumgartner, Sissy Elliott, Lori Reeves and Celeste Hanson.

Whatever The Letter,

Rush week unites the seven national sororities: Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Phi Mu, Chi Omega, Zeta Tau Alpha; the general members of Alpha Kappa Alpha, and Genesis Interest group during a week of planned activities. Such activities include a door decoration contest, chalk art contest, faculty appreciation, walk-a-thon, greek games and talent show.

Alpha Delta Pi members: Laure Harvin, Ellen Hardy, Whitney Moreland and Beth Haigler participated in greek games.

ZIA members: Jeanie Ackerman, Marianne Davis, Suzanne Clark and Jennifer Mauldin pulling to win the tug-of-war.

We Stick Together!

Alpha Kappa Alpha members: Carol McCoy, Robin Oglesby, Donna Knox and Terri Lyons with Genesis Member Ann Mims "feel good" after their talent performance.

Phi Mu members: Tracy Cornelius, Cindy Smith and Tammy Adams were determined to win the tug-of-war.

AXΩ

Tau Chapter of Alpha Chi Omega had an exciting and prosperous year. Alpha Chi started off the year with a wonderful Rush! We gained 12 great new girls. We would like to congratulate all of our new officers — Kathleen Illges is the new BFA president and a member of HGH. Jane Wall is Vice-Chairman of Honor Court and SAC Recording Secretary. Lisa Lambright is Panhellenic Entertainment chairman. Heather Statham is SAC treasurer and SGA Entertainment. Robyn Polcyn is the new SGA treasurer and Junior Justice. Robin Ricks is also a Junior Justice. Alpha Chi had at least one officer representing every class. The student body also elected seven Alpha Chi's as representatives on May Court. Congratulations to Dana, Heidi and Kammi on their exciting engagements. Also congrats to Adair on her TKE pinning and Robyn on her Javeliering. Best of Luck to our Seniors — we love you and we will miss you!! — Suzie, Adair, Ansley, Tracey, Dana, and Heidi!

The Delta Shelta provides an ever-changing environment in which we live, learn and laugh. The year, as always, began with a very successful rush that brought us 12 wonderful pledges. January gave us SGA and Rec. Board Presidents and Lee out horsin' around — Congrats! Spring as usual will find the 3 D's sunning in the backyard and graduation of our 5 great seniors. We are going to miss you guys, good luck and Delta Love Always.

Too Cool Heather go-cart racing in Gatlinburg

Alpha Delta Pi had a terrific '91-92 year. We started off by dancing the "Chicken Dance" in Helen during Octoberfest, then followed the Braves to the World Series by winning "Most Spirited." Fun parties with the Alpha Chi's and Phi Mu's fall quarter. We'll never forget: Ellen H. — doin' the flounder, Ski Retreat in Gatlinburg — demolition go-cart racing, Ellen M. — Have U lost it?, Heather and Kim — so, are y'all going to Mexico too?, Aundi — where is she? Tari — A to D, Michelle — SAE lavaliered and Charleston again?, Ashli — roller skating queen and which boy is it today?, Deann — engaged, Angie — watch that chicken wire and T-shirt man, We love our horsey — Beth H., and all our ADPi campus officers, May Court Queen — Ellen and ADPi attendants. 1991 was a great year for all! And as Gabby would say . . . See ya later!

XΩ

The Eta Zeta Chapter of Chi Omega started off the '91-92 school year with a terrific Rush and twelve cutie pledges, and two more. Jennifer went "putt putt", Eleanor illegally dated POOKIE, Ashley finally passed Algebra, Robin was Chi-O's most wanted, Francie — "How do I love thee, let me count the boys . . .", Kimberly K. took a trip, Alissa, "Things that make you go HUM", Margret became Phi Delt's house mother, Melissa — Where is that chic? Stephanie became a "Supreme" for 48 hours, Libby likes "Great big, hairy fireman", Shaw found destiny in Dustin with Dustin, Kimberly B. Who'll be the next victim of Jim? Leila is law school bound!, Shannon M,M,M, or M???, Susan — I is fix'in to be married, Liz took midnight pajama runs and ANNA SA'IN THE "L" WORD!!! Chi-O says bye to our seniors and hello to our pledges! We love you all!!!

Kickin' back after a great Rush!

ZTA UNIVERSE

ZTA started out the 1991-1992 school year with an outstanding group of new pledges, including 3 legacies! Founder's Day marked 93 years of sisterhood, and YES it is still going strong! We had a blast at Halloween HAVOC (with the Jaycees!), and we raised the money for CF during Bowl for Breath! Congrats to Sonia for Chaiman Justice and H.G.H. and to Mel Shep and Cheryl for getting lavaliered! Congrats and good luck to all of our other campus officers too! Thanks to our seniors for their complete dedication to ZTA! Kim M. for being the best Treasurer ever!, Kim H. for keeping our spirits up during Rush. We'll miss your constant smile!, and Steph Gr. for keeping us in line! Tracy, we'll miss your creative touch, and Gillis, we'll miss our own radio personality! Good luck to Linda in med. school! We hope to call you "Doc" someday! Cheryl, we'll miss your stories! Was it really the "LONG" and this "BIG AROUND"? And last, but not least, Garner (our Pres.) — Yes! You really are GREAT!!! We love all of you, and we'll miss you so-o-o much! Good luck and God Bless you!

Kim and Kim — We love you!

The Mu Chapter of Phi Mu started off the exciting and busy year with a great bunch of "Phi's". We love our Phi's and We Ain't Lion!!

Beginning '91 came Fred and Wilma with the Hoedown entertainment, Mendal's back on the grass and going places, Tammy and Lisa — SEAL, Marla and Jennifer — wanna dance?, Rae Marie — What? yeal, Carrie — TV, not!, Robin and Eli — Big teaching Lil?, Kelly — who's mood?,

Then in '92 came Mary — We have the technology, Amy — go, but not on the grass or off campus, Lisa P. — David or ?, Debbie — Back for more, Amanda — designated driver? NOT!, Reveca — did you?, Susan — Way to go Jack!, Cindy — Mexican anyone? Katherine — Jamie's driving, Remember this year — Friends in low places, Crazy, No name, fair game!, do I have too?, and those Thursday nights. Best wishes to all for the Best Year!!

Just another day of fun, sun and smiles.

One of those Thursday Nights!

1991-1992 has been a great year for Alpha Gamma Delta. "S — know it." We love all of our pledges and we're very proud of them for winning first place for the highest pledge class GPA. This year's been full of achievements all around. Congratulations Liz — Miss Rat Week, Jennifer — Who's Who, and Ashli on ALL of her offices and HGH! We're very proud of all our old and new campus officers. We found our motto this year with Allie Bells call of "Yippi Skippy Charge" which got us up and going in "Landshark" with road trips to Atlanta, Athens, "Cat in the Hat," and "Purple Passion." So Lori, where's Mr. Long? To all our seniors, we love you for all you have done for this chapter and we'll miss you bunches. We couldn't have done it without you. Good luck and keep in touch!

H.G.H. SENIOR HONOR SOCIETY

The H.G.H. Senior Honor Society exists to promote the interest of Brenau College and to serve the welfare of the college student body as a whole, without regards to personal, social, class or political affiliation. Each year the society will select seven new members from the junior class of the college, who in turn will select, at a proper time, their own successors. Election to membership in H.G.H. is based on merit and merit alone. Neither politics nor fraternal consideration play any part in the election of H.G.H. What H.G.H. strives to secure is the election of seven outstanding students from the junior class. Above all, it will invite only students whose loyalty to Brenau College is proven and beyond question. The members of H.G.H. refuse to discuss the organization or its affairs with outsiders. Members are not allowed to speak its name. However, it is to be known that the society is dedicated to the interest of the college and that its every action is motivated by the desire to serve these interests.
